

BROOMHAUGH C OF E FIRST SCHOOL NEWSLETTER 7 FEBRUARY 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

Today we celebrated our whole school family as we have been thinking about how we can all be leaders in some way. Our thoughts this week were about good leaders who motivate, inspire, challenge and help to give someone the strength to complete new tasks or to inspire them to do something. At Broomhaugh, we support each other to lead and to be 'like spring rain and sunshine'. Thank you to everyone who has passed on their good wishes for Mrs Reed, she very much appreciates your kind thoughts.

Our final week of this half term has come around so quickly and is full of exciting learning experiences and events including a tag rugby tournament for Year 3 and 4, our internet safety day workshops and other activities for Safer Internet Day. Our school council are also in the process of making plans for this year's sport relief as well as sending out a job advert and job descriptions for children who would like to apply to be playground buddies!

Have a lovely weekend.

Loving learning at Broomhaugh

The Secret Garden

Today in Secret Garden Book Club we have begun our new Book of the Month - The Happy Prince by Oscar Wilde. This week we have also had art club and we drew the birds in the garden, and we have been working on our crochet blankets to make our shelter more cosy.

Dates are printed below....new dates will be added in red so please check each week for any events/activities involving your child's year group or the whole school.
