

BROOMHAUGH C OF E FIRST SCHOOL NEWSLETTER 3 DECEMBER 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

December has arrived and following an amazing hunt today... Reception Class have found our tree! Christmas lights are beginning to twinkle around school and the children have done a fantastic job decorating the Broomhaugh Trees in St. James' Church this week. At home time tonight the church will be open if you would like to walk through to take a look – every child has made a super decoration for you to see but we will share photographs too! We thank Rev Diana for the lovely event we shared this afternoon and beautiful harp music we were treated to, has certainly given us all the Christmas tingles!

Have a lovely weekend.

TYNEDALE PHOTOGRAPH ORDERS

Deadline for orders Sunday 5 December.

VILLAGE CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTS – Message from Catherine Harrison (Parish Clerk)

The Cubs and Beavers are helping to switch on the village Christmas tree lights on Tuesday 7th December at 6.30 pm, Parish Hall gardens. They are going to be joined by Santa. We'd love to see your families there too and everyone would be most welcome.

COVID UPDATES:

This week we have had 1 new positive COVID case confirmed for middle class and 1 for Reception class. It is great to have most of top class back in school and well. We thank you for your support in continuing to complete tests at this challenging time. Each new case has been caught quickly through daily home tests, so it is good to know the LAT Flow testing has done its job so far – THANK YOU.

After School Clubs – CLUBS ARE NOW FINISHED FOR THIS TERM
