0.6 FTE Mixed Year 1/2 Class Teacher

Required for January 2020

Temporary Fixed Term Spring / Summer 2020

Salary: Main Pay Scale M1-M6

Vacancy number: Y1/2CT 01012020

An exciting opportunity is on offer to join the team of Broomhaugh Church of England First School. The post will be teaching a Mixed Year 1 and Year 2 class on a fixed term contract beginning January 2020. Working days will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Applications from NQTs are welcome.

The Governing Body invites applications from classroom practitioners with a passion for teaching and learning and a commitment to providing the best for all.

We require the successful candidate to lead by example, inspiring and motivating our children to achieve their full potential in school. We need a dedicated and hardworking individual who shares the school's values and aims and has a commitment to our Christian Values. In our small, community school we provide a safe, enjoyable and caring atmosphere in which children can learn and succeed. The successful candidate will be committed to their own continued professional development and will be dedicated to ensuring we offer high quality teaching and learning and enabling all our children to flourish.

We are looking for someone who:

- is an exciting and inspirational classroom practitioner
- has relevant teaching experience with first school age teaching
- will motivate children and their colleagues to achieve their full potential in school and in life
- has high expectations of pupil achievement and behaviour
- has the ability and skills to successfully lead an area of the curriculum
- has excellent organisational and interpersonal skills
- has the ability to promote the school's ethos and reputation within the community

In return we can offer:

- friendly, polite children who are inquisitive and have a love of learning
- a welcoming and committed team of staff and governors
- the chance to join a forward thinking team who are dedicated to continuous improvement
- opportunities for continuous professional development

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and expect all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS disclosure is required for this post.
